Chelsea Win the Champions League

Chelsea beat Man City 1-0 in the Final

Kai Havertz scored the only goal of the match

Chelsea become only the second English team to win the competition twice

Chelsea become the first team to win the competition having lost the first leg of the last 16 tie

Chelsea are the first team to win the competition without making a single substitution in the knockout stages

Chelsea manager Thomas Tuchel is the first German manager to win the Champions League

Chelsea have won their second Champions League title, beating Man City 1-0 in the Final. Manager Thomas Tuchel is the first German manager to win the competition.

Chelsea have won their second Champions League title, beating Man City 1-0 in the Final. Manager Thomas Tuchel is the first German manager to win the competition.